Detailed Itinerary

A: Holy Kailash Manasarovar Yatra

Day 1: Arrive Kathmandu:

Arrival in Kathmandu. Upon your arrival in Kathmandu, We will meet you at the Tribhuvan International Airport. You will be transferred to your hotel; in the evening, we will have a group meeting and a two hour briefing for the Yatra. Overnight stay in hotel. We would suggest you take a flight which arrives early in the morning in Kathmandu to allow enough time to rest.

Day 2: Kathmandu Sightseeing. B.L.D

Darshan, Pashupatinath Temple & sightseeing. Early in the morning we will perform Rudrabhishek at Pashupatinath Temple. After lunch, we can proceed for a sightseeing tour of Buddha Nilakantha and Swayambhunath. In the evening, you are free for shopping.

Day 3: Lhasa Arrival. B.L.D

Kathmandu to Lhasa. We fly to Lhasa and take you to the Hotel. Later we try to cover few sightseeing places including Barkhor and Jokhang Temple. Overnight stay in Hotel

Day 4: Lhasa B.L.D

Sightseeing in Lhasa (Potala Palace, Jokhang Temple, and Barkhor Market). We will take the tour in Lhasa whilst acclimatising.

Overnight in Hotel.

Day 5: Lhasa → Shigatse(3950m) 350 kms- 9 hrs (B.L.D)

After breakfast in your hotel drive to Shigatse which is the 2nd largest city of Tibet. Built in 1447 by the first Dalai Lama the Tashil Lhunpo Monastery in Shigatse is a very important monastery in China as it is known as seat of the Panchan Lama. Night stay will be at Hotel.

Day 6: Shigatse → Sage (4550m) 370 kms- 9 hrs (B,L,D)

We take an early morning drive to Saga, please note this will be a long drive but on the way we can make enough stops and a lunch break. Overnight in Hotel at Saga.

Day 7: Saga → Dongba → PRAYANG → MANSAROVAR (4550 m) 670 Kms 9 / 10 hrs (B,L,D)

After breakfast, we continue the drive to Mansarovar (4750m / 14,180 ft) on the way you will cross Mayumla pass 5100m. Travel time: 8- 9 hours.

The day's drive is very long. This is a most auspicious day for everyone, as some of you might have waited for long, maybe even life times, to get your first glimpse of Holy Mt. Kailash and sacred Lake Manasarovar.

The road condition is fair. Enjoy the vast Tibetan plateau, where the landscape changes from sandy dunes to rocky vistas, to savannah. Stay overnight at a guesthouse.

Day 8: Rest day in Manasarovar, Havan Puja, tarpanam and Hike around. (B, L, D)

Havan worship/rest/acclimatisation at Lake Manasarovar. Experience being in the abode of God, it is a lifetime achievement: puja, havan worship, meditation, Holy bath, tarpan etc. Here relax and explore around the Lake Manasarovar. Stay overnight at the same guesthouse.

Day 9: MANASAROVAR → DARCHEN 45 km drive → DIRAPHUK (4720m 7hrs trek (B, L, D)

Drive Darchen 45 km and then to Tarboche (7 km) and trek to Derapuk (12 km) - First day of Parikrama. Trekking time: 6 to 7 hours, and a drive of about 13 km. to Tarboche. For those Yatris who are not joining for the Parikrama, they can do a small Parikrama about 100 mt. of Tarboche flag, which is also considered as a Parikrama of Holy Mount Kailash. Then an additional two kilometers by coach and we begin the Yatra on foot or horse back. The trail has a few ups and downs till Diraphuk. Be blessed by seeing the magnificent view of north face, of holy mountain Mt. Kailash. Stay overnight in guesthouse/camp.

Day 10: DIRAPHUK → ZUTHULPHUK GOMPA (4790m) (B,L,D)

Early morning we start about 7am for our second day of the Parikrama we trek 15 km from Diraphuk to Dolma La Pass (5650m / 18,532ft) to Zhutulbuk Valley (4760m / 15,613ft). Trekking time: 9 to 10 hours. This is the toughest day of the Yatra. To Dolma La Pass, it is a 6 kilometers uphill trek. If you would like to pray and perform puja for 10 to 15 minutes at the pass you can do. Soon after Dolma La Pass is Gaurikund. From here you will start descending for another 6 kilometers. The trail is very slippery and you have to move carefully, from rock to rock. Please use your walking poles. A final steep descent brings you to the valley floor. An additional 3 kilometers of gradual walk and you arrive at guesthouse. Stay overnight at camp/guesthouse.

Day 11: ZUTHULPHUK → DARCHEN → Saga (B, L, D)

Once we have our breakfast we trek for 6 KM and then drive to Darchen for Lunch and drive to Saga.

Day 12: SAGA → SHIGATSE (10 hrs) (B) 450 KM. B.L.D

After breakfast we say good bye to our Nepali staff, they will head toward Kerung/Kathmandu and you will drive to Shigatse via Lhatse. This will be a long day drive, so make sure you have enough snacks. Overnight stay in Shigatse.

Day 13: SHIGATSE → LHASA (7 hrs) (B) 280 KM. B.L.D

Morning after breakfast we drive back to Lhasa.

Day 14: LHASA → KATHMANDU (1:30 hrs) (B,D)

Morning departure from Lhasa to Kathmandu. We will come to pick you up at the airport, afternoon free for shopping, evening we will take you for culture show and dinner.

Day 15: KATHMANDU → USA or UK or to even India.

Note: Please note the visa and permits are granted by the Chinese authority so we do not hold any responsibility if we are not granted entry for Tibet.

Things to do before arriving to Kathmandu

Vigorous exercise to increase the lung capacity.

Start to drink at least 3-4 litres of water.

Please get Multiple Entry visa to Nepal – as we are going to Kailash (situated in Tibet, China) and coming back to Nepal again.

Kailash/Tibet Travel Information:

Passport: A nine months valid passport is required for travel to Tibet. Please check the expiry date of your passport.

Visa: Nepal visa: All travellers visiting Nepal require a visa. As per new rule in Nepal, you are not required to obtain Nepal visa if you are not staying for more than three nights. In that case you will only require a single entry visa to Nepal. This visa will cost you around £25 (Twenty five pounds). You do not need to take chinese visa as it will be arranged by us. The visa fees for chinese visa are included in our package price.

To obtain Nepal visa: Choice 1: Visa can be obtained at any Nepalese Embassy, Consul, or Honorary Consul outside Nepal. Your ticket agent may also arrange for your Nepal visa. Choice 2 (Easy and fast way): Visa can be obtained on arrival at Kathmandu Airport Immigration. You will require two (2) copies of your passport size photos.

Weather & climate: Geographically, Tibet lies beyond the trans-Himalayas and has minimal rainfall and sunny days. For those traveling to Kailash region, the best time to visit is from May to September. Mid-day temperatures in this region could rise as high as 22 degrees Celsius with evening temperatures as low as 8 to 12 degrees below zero. March to November is the best time to visit central Tibet.

Health: Those in good health should have no difficulty traveling to this region. Due to the high altitude of this area, travellers may experience the effect of altitude sickness, which is characterised by mild headaches, nausea, and loss of appetite. Altitude sickness can be reduced by frequently drinking non-alcoholic liquids such as water and juice. Travellers are reminded to protect themselves from the strong sunlight, which can cause sunburn. Those with health conditions including asthma, diabetes, high blood pressure, epilepsy and cardiac problems should seek a doctor's approval before embarking on this journey.

For those who have decided to join this Yatra, Earthbound Exp requests that you engage in some type of health related activity such as yoga, morning walks, or jogging in order to maintain your physical fitness.

Currency: The unit of currency in Tibet is the Renmbi or Yuan. As of Oct 2016, GBP£1 is equivalent to Yuan 8.17. This exchange rate is subject to change. Currency can be exchanged at the Bank of China with branches located in Lhasa and other major cities.

Risk and liability: We will make every effort to ensure that your journey is smooth and as pleasant as possible. However, please be reminded that all programmes in Tibet are strictly conducted under the rules and regulations of the Tibet Tourism Bureau. Therefore, neither Earthbound Expeditions Ltd. nor our Tibet Agent shall be responsible for any changes in the itinerary due to unavoidable circumstances including but not limited to: Government restrictions, landslides, road blockages, flooding, snowfall, political disturbances, flight cancellations, illnesses or accidents. Any additional costs that are a result of such circumstances will be born by the traveller/s.

Insurance: All travellers are advised to purchase travel insurance that provides care and services for sickness, accidents, emergency rescue, etc. related to international travel. Please submit a copy of your insurance policy to our Kathmandu office upon your arrival to Kathmandu, Nepal. Earthbound Expeditions Ltd. shall not be responsible for the loss of personal assets and belongings of the traveller/s due to unavoidable reasons or mishap.

Staff: Our agent Earthbound Expeditions Ltd. only employs well-trained, responsible and capable staff that has successfully led many trips for European and Indian groups to this vast region. Each trip is staffed with an experienced guide who speaks English and Hindi, ensuring a pleasant and smooth journey for the group. Earthbound Expeditions Ltd. is committed to providing the best and reliable service for each group for this journey of a lifetime!

Transportation: Our agent Earthbound Expeditions Ltd. will arrange for all overland transportation. A coach will be provided for the Kathmandu-Kodari-Kathmandu, Kathmandu-Kerung-Kathmandu or Lhasa-Lhasa portion of the trip and coach/minivan/minibus will transport the group in Tibet. A support truck will carry the necessary camping gear and supplies. Yaks and yak men will be arranged for the Kora (Parikrama).

Medical supplies and service: Medical facilities in Tibet are very basic if at all available. Our agent Earthbound Expeditions Ltd. will provide a first aid medical kit and equipment for treating high altitude sickness including an oxygen cylinder with mask and altitude portable chamber. All travellers are requested to bring their own first aid kit with medicines and supplies recommended by their doctors.

Postal service and communication: Many areas of Tibet are without communication facilities, including telephone and postal services. The last point in the journey from which a telephone call can be made is Saga, the small city near the famous Brahamaputra River. Beyond this point, it is not possible to make telephone calls. In case of emergency, please ask your family and friends to contact the staff at our Kathmandu office that will provide information and respond to their needs accordingly.

Clothing: Due to frequent changes in temperature, even moving from inside the land cruiser where it is warm to cooler outside temperatures, travellers will need clothes for both warm and cold periods. To make your yatra light and comfortable, Earthbound Expeditions Ltd. will provide basic yet important clothing items such as down jackets and sleeping bags, back pack (water proof), duffel bag.

SUGGESTED LIST OF THINGS FOR THE YATRA: PLEASE NOTE YOU CAN GET ALL THIS ITEMS IN KATHMANDU IF YOU WANT TO AVOID EXTRA LUGGAGE IN CHEAPER PRICE HOWEVER YOU MAY NOT GET THE BEST QUALITY.
